INTERNAL SECURITY

AUGUST 27 (legislative day, AUGUST 1), 1951.—Ordered to be printed

Mr. MCCARRAN, from the Committee on the Judiciary, submitted the following

REPORT

[To accompany S. Res. 198]

The Committee on the Judiciary, having under consideration the subject matter of the internal security of the United States, reports favorably thereon an original resolution (S. Res. 198) and recommends that the resolution do pass.

STATEMENT

Senate Resolution 366, Eighty-first Congress, which provides for an investigation relating to the internal security of the United States, agreed to December 21, 1950, authorized the expenditure of $10,000. Thereafter, Senate Resolution 7 of the Eighty-second Congress, agreed to January 29, 1951, authorized the expenditure under Senate Resolution 366 of the Eighty-first Congress of an additional $75,000, making a total of $85,000 authorized to be expended on or before January 31, 1952.

The present monthly expenditures of the Internal Security Subcommittee for salaries is $8,820.70. Other monthly expenditures aggregate approximately $4,200, making total monthly expenditures of approximately $13,000. It is estimated that the $85,000 authorized to be expended will be expended by November 1, 1951.

The instant resolution provides for an additional sum of $195,000 which will enable the Internal Security Subcommittee to carry on its work for an additional 15 months beginning November 1, 1951, and ending January 31, 1953, at its present rate of expenditure of approximately $13,000 per month.
